Re: Awards for Merit Students

Dear Dr. Bastola,

We are pleased to announce that American Society of Nepalese Engineers (ASNEng) is providing "Awards for Merit Students" at different universities in Nepal that promote engineering education. One student from your institute who is enrolled in the Bachelor of Engineering (B.E.) program in 2014 will be awarded U.S. $200, under the auspices of this program. Kindly note that the nominated student must be topmost ranked among all students entering into engineering areas in 2014 (Nepali year 2071) to qualify for this award and female candidate must be topmost ranked among female students.

American Society of Nepalese Engineers (ASNEng) is a non-profit organization, registered in the state of South Carolina, U.S.A., in 2007, and has tax exempt status under Section 501(C)(3) of the IRS Internal Revenue Code. The society is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, and educational purposes.

I have attached a file containing the Application Guidelines and Criteria and the Application Form for the Merit Award. Please have the student meeting the qualification for this award complete the application form according to the guidelines and return it to us by December 20, 2014.

Please do not hesitate to contact me, should you have any questions in regards to this award.

Thank you very much indeed for your time and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Rajendra K. Shrestha
