

Pokhara University Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences School of Development and Social Engineering

Bachelor of Arts Bachelor of Laws (B.A.LL.B.)

Introduction

Law as a profession not only offers lucrative career avenues but also brings with it an unparalleled promise of power and prestige, which adds to the attractiveness of the profession. The legal sphere is the place for a person to be excellent in communication skills, power of argument, concrete critical thinking and excellent analytical abilities. The law is becoming the center of our activity and attention in today's society. As a result, the study of the law has gained significant popularity and momentum.

Recently, universities around the globe, including in Nepal, have begun offering a five-year integrated law course known as B.A.LL.B. programs. Students will, upon completion of the course, be awarded the B.A.LL.B. degree. The attractiveness of the B.A.LL.B. course and degree has considerably increased both inside and outside of Nepal.

The curriculum covers several theoretical dimensions and also includes rigorous practical aspects like the moot court, research paper submissions, and mock trials. The B.A.LL.B. course meets national and international standards and provide the country with the next generation of lawyers, judges, intellectuals and public officials of the highest competence and integrity.

Objectives

- To impart legal education and give them the analytical tools needed for the pursuit of professional excellence, and inculcate in them the qualities of leadership.
- To provide a comprehensive and interdisciplinary legal education relevant to society's needs, matching international standards without compromising the legal heritage and cultural ethos of Nepal.
- To train students in the practical application of the law through clinical education, seminars, research submissions, moot courts, trial advocacy and internships.
- To allow students to forge diverse career paths (including pursuing higher studies), maximizing their freedom of choice to choose their future profession.
- To foster sound civic sense in students and train them to become responsible citizens of democratic societies

Career Scope

The B.A.LL.B. graduates will be able to communicate in the legal profession, interpret and apply laws, explore niche options in the legal industry, specialize in legal subjects of their interest and succeed in legal employment. Students will become indispensable assets to any employer in fields as diverse as litigation, government service, corporate offices, and international and non-governmental organizations.

Admission Eligibility and Procedure

- Any person (Nepali citizen or Foreigner) can apply for admission to the program.
- A student who has passed School Level Certificate Education (SLCE) / (10+2) level or any other equivalent degree in any subject with a minimum grade 'D+' in each subject (for the student who has passed the SLCE from NEB till 2078 BS) or a minimum grade 'D' in each subject (for the student who has passed the SLCE from NEB in 2079 BS) with a minimum CGPA of 1.6 in aggregate in a 4.0-grade point system or pass division from a recognized board.
- Applicants are selected from a merit list of entrance examinations conducted by the faculty.
- Applicants are selected from a merit list of entrance examinations conducted by the University.

Structure of the Curriculum

The B.A.LL.B. Curriculum consists of compulsory and elective courses. The compulsory courses have been tailored to provide sufficient grounding in the principal branches of the law. Elective courses, on the other hand, amplify students' understanding of particular branches of the law.

Normally, one credit is equivalent to one hour of lecture per week per semester. The minimum number of class hours for a course of three credit hours in a semester is, therefore, approximately 48 hours.

Medium of Business

The language of teaching, learning, discussion, communication and evaluation (including all examinations, assignments and reports) will be English except for any other specific language course offered in this programme. However, some administrative businesses may be in Nepali, bilingually (Nepali-English).

Seats and Scholarship

There are altogether 40 seats available in the B.A.LL.B. programme. 20 per cent of seats are allocated for scholarships as per the rules of the University. A separate application is required as per University Scholarship Procedure.

Degree Award

In order to get the degree of Bachelor of Arts Bachelor of Laws (B.A.LL.B.), each student must successfully complete all the requirements prescribed by the B.A.LL.B. course syllabus and the Rules and Regulations of the Controller of Examinations of Pokhara University.
